

DOG BITES AND INCIDENCE OF RABIES IN HUMAN POPULATION OF SRINAGAR, KASHMIR

Dr. NAMERA THAHABY¹, Dr. AFZAL HOQUE AKAND², . Dr. ABDUL HAI BHAT³, Dr. SHABEER AHMED HAMDANI⁴,

A dog bite costs victim
Rs 2000 in Kashmir: GMC

Background

Dog bites are a very important public health problem in Srinagar.

The current study was once carried in Srinagar district. Diverse sampling diagram / records series method was once formulated to fulfill the set of objectives. Epidemiological sample and prevalence of canine bites was once gathered from the secondary information. . Regarding understanding of disease interview was once formulated.

About the essential elements related with expanded canine population two sources i.e. principal and secondary sources had been utilized for figuring out the possibly elements accountable for expanded canine population